

APRIL 2023 HONOR LAMB

The Williams Twins

I was three months pregnant, when our twins passed away. We were preparing for baby Psalm and Reese.

I went into labor Sunday November 21 ,2021 at 8:00 PM , that night they gained their wings. One of the babies was a little bigger than the other, I still remember the sound of their heart beat.

Our experience is unique we didn't get to hold or see them. All we have is, these pictures of our babies. They will forever be missed.

Thank you weighted angels for your comfort and love during this journey of grief. Our babies are gone but never forgotten.
